

European Forum on Nature Conservation and Pastoralism EFNCP

Service Interchambres Montagne Elevage Languedoc Roussillon

Contact : Dr Jean-Pierre Biber Bureau NATCONS Steinengraben 2 CH – 4051 Basel Switzerland

Contact :Marc Dimanche Service Pastoralisme & Environnement Domaine de Saporta 34 970 – LATTES

Tel (day): +41 (0)61 271 92 83 Fax: ++41 (0)61 271 04 74 Tel: +33 4 67 06 23 53 Fax: +33 4 67 06 23 78

 $\hbox{E-mail:} \underline{ Jean-Pierre.Biber@natcons.ch}$

E-mail : dimanche@sime-lr.org

Rural Development measures and the future of pastoralism: regional problems, future management possibilities and policy realities.

Causses Méridionaux and Région Languedoc-Roussillon

The 8th European Forum on Nature Conservation and Pastoralism

Montpellier, France 13th - 17th September 2003

PROGRAMME

Saturday 13th^h September

17.00 Reception of participants in conference hall and distribution of conference documents.

19.00 onwards Buffet dinner (to allow for late arrivals).

Sunday 14th September

SESSION 1 Farm visits – to stock breeding areas on the southern Causses

08.30	Departure with the buses.
08.45	Logistics of the field visits and links with the rest of the Conference provided on coaches.
09.00	Information provided on coaches on " The Causses Méridionaux, their farming and wildlife SIME & Chambres Agriculture, France".
09.30	Guided by facilitators and the farmers, visits to a sheep farm (transhumant), a milk sheep farm (Roquefort cheese), mixed suckler cow/horse farm. The field visits will also show sites with MAEs (agro environment measures) or on operations developed under LIFE and LEADER.
11.30	Meeting at communal house in le Caylar, Causse du Larzac. Sustainable development of southern Causses by A.C.M "Association des Causses méridionaux".
12.30	Buffet at communal house of le Caylar.
14.00	Continuation of farm visits on Causse du Larzac. Visits to a transhumant sheep farm and to a sedentary sheep farm.
	Causse de Campestre et Luc: Visit to a Roquefort milk sheep farm and to a suckling cattle – horse farm with reception at the farm.
19.00 19.30	Conference reassembles at dinner venue on the Causse de Blandas (Jurade). Dinner.
22.0	Return to Montpellier (buses leaving in stages).

Monday 15th September

SESSION 2 Ecological value and farming dynamics in the Region Languedoc Roussillon

Chairperson:	Marc Dimanche
08.45	Introduction to the 8 th Forum and an outline of the aims of the meeting. Ole Ostermann, EFNCP, France.
09.00	History of pastoralism on the Causses: Jacques Lepart, C.N.R.S. Montpellier, France.
09.30	LIFE Pastoralism project Languedoc Roussillon: Daniel Petit, A.M.E., France.
10.00	CADs (contrats d'agriculture durable): Jean-Yves Bechler, D.G.F.A.R. Ministère de l'Agriculture, France.
10.30	Coffee

Chairperson: Jean-Pierre Biber
11.00 Natura 2000 in Languedoc-Roussillon: Jean-Pierre Arnaud, DIREN Montpellier, France.
11.30 Pastoral breeding systems in southern France: Lucien Pagès, Marc Dimanche, Edmond Tchakérian, SIME & Institut de l'Elevage, France.
12.00 General Discussion (to raise the wider questions).
12.30 Lunch

SESSION 3 Using European Limestone and Karst areas as examples of High Nature Value landscapes associated with pastoralism.

Chairperson:	Davy McCracken
14.30	Karst grasslands of the Northern Adriatic: vegetation history, patterns and dynamics, management and nature conservation: Mitja Kaligaric, University Maribor, Slovenia.
15.00	Case study from Öland, Sweden: Tommy Knutsson, WWF Sweden.
15.30	Case study from Central and Eastern Europe: Gabor Figerczky, WWF Hungary
16.00	Coffee
Chairperson:	NN
16.30	Proposals for a conservation strategy for dry grasslands in France: Francis Muller, Fédération des conservatoires d'espaces naturels, France.
17.00	Trends in farm management in the Burren, Ireland: Brendan Dunford, Burrenbeo, Ireland.
17.30	General discussion.
18.00	End
19.00	Reception in poster area
20.00	Conference Dinner

Tuesday 16th September

SESSION 4 The Policy Arena and High Nature Value (HNV) Farmland

Chairperson: Berien Elbersen

09.00 The Colin Tubbs Memorial Lecture.

	Rural Development plans and High Nature Value farmland - developing policies to cope with ecological complexity: John Rodwell, University of Lancaster.
09.30	The HNV Indicators project - the Policy needs: Jan-Erik Petersen, EEA, Denmark.
09.50	HNV farmland, the RDR and the MTR of the CAP: Michael Hamell, DG Environment EC, Brussels.
10.10	Provisional results of the HNV Indicators Project and the aims of the Workshops: Erling Andersen, FSL, Denmark.
10.30	Coffee

SESSION 5 Workshops – The development and application of HNV indicators

Chairperson: Jan-Erik Petersen

11.00 Introduction to the workshops: Erling Andersen.

11.05 Three simultaneous workshops addressing HNV farming systems in:

[1] Mediterranean Europe.

[2] Atlantic Europe and Scandinavia.

[3] Central and Eastern Europe.

13.00 Lunch

SESSION 6 Concluding Session: The future of pastoralism and HNV farmland, regional problems, future management possibilities and policy realities.

Chairperson:	Guy Beaufoy
15.00	Reports from the workshops followed by open discussion.
16.00	Guided discussion on the outcomes of the Conference opened and led by David Baldock.
17.00	Summary of main outcomes, conclusions and recommendations of the meeting.
17.30	Close
19.30	Dinner

Wednesday 17th September

Delegates depart.